- II. Review/Approval of Minutes November 2017, January 2017 was PTA closed board meeting
- III. Treasurers Report/Budget
Jill indicated we are “on track” with our budget for the 2016-2017 school year. She noted recent expense, Dance Program and Go Get your Smock and briefly talked about the monies raised at the Barnes and Noble Book Fair.
- IV. Principal's Report
Ms. K had recognized all the past events that took place since our last meeting in November, Barnes and Noble, Fields Trips, Choir performances, Founders Day. She noted the Chess Club could use their own weekly email. She introduced the new literacy teacher Mrs. L. Chueng. She gave an update on her daughter's health.
- V. Old Business
Barnes and Noble Talent Show – Sarah gave a brief update on the successful event and thanked the chairs, Megan Zack and Michele Blackenberger.
Founders Day Event – Glynis Berger successful event – maybe 60 attendees! Kindergarten performances were cute and choir is always a hit!
Reflections – Julie K. (for Colette Gatling) congratulated all the students who participated and those who moved on to state.
- VI. New Business
Annual Fund – Julie K. (for Dan Duggan) noted we are at the half way mark and we need to keep pushing for donations. Was suggested to mention some of the programs that the funds go to and mark our progress on donations.
Upcoming Spring Event—Tara Kowalke and Simone Koehlinger attended the meeting and gave us a wonderful update and things that are still need for the event at Catalyst Ranch on April 1st, 2017. It is $50 per person, annual fund < $250 and bar sponsorships will receive complimentary admission. They discussed “join our host committee”, sponsor the bar, attend “choose your own mask brunch on Sunday, March 12 from 12-2, we need donations, help secure a videographer.
T.H.A.N.K.S Awards (To Honor and Notice Kindness and Service) were given to Michele Blackenberger and Megan Zack for their work on the Barnes and Noble Book Fair, Julie Calcagno for tap shoes, library volunteer and many more and Linda Coenen for leading the tap shoe fittings.
